Dear Friends

I would like to welcome Kevin Saunders and his Health and Fitness Tour to Michigan. I would also like to offer my congratulations to Kevin for his strength and determination in achieving his ultimate goal: making our nation a healthier one.

With Michigan serving as a starting point for this most important tour, we give it special attention and support its message of inspiration and motivation. I am confident that the Kevin Saunders' Health and Fitness Tour of America will inspire and empower the citizens of Michigan and the nation to continue improving their personal health and fitness.

On behalf of the State of Michigan, thank you for this most important health and fitness initiative. Congratulations and the best of luck on your upcoming travels.

Sincerely yours,

Jennifer M. Granholm
Governor
